Topic: There are new optional lab test types in Metrc Maryland.

Greetings,

Metrc, in conjunction with the Maryland Cannabis Administration (MCA) is pleased to provide information the following update.

As of August 17, 2026, the following new test types will become available and can be optionally reported in Metrc:

- Borneol
- Fenchol
- Terpineol
- Guaiol
- Camphene

Testing facilities will now have the option to upload results for the analytes listed above in Metrc.

Note: If a licensee opts to have these tests completed, they must notify their testing facility directly to request additional testing.
